Replacement Demand Will Explode

R-22 refrigerant is reaching the end of its global phase out, yet the majority of HVAC-R systems in the US still run on R-22. With the R-22 prices skyrocketing and supply rapidly declining, we know that for mechanical contractors the new replacement reality can be challenging. That is why we created a product that will make you and your customers happy. Bluon TdX 20 will save your customers money and also provide full support for you with our industry-first mobile app, training and powerful support eco-system.

The Bluon Mobile App

Make the R-22 replacement job a breeze with this incredibly powerful mobile app from Bluon. An industry-first tool offering real-time support for technicians replacing R-22.
